

RALLY FOR FULL PROTECTION OF OUR DRINKING WATER!

WHO: The Ten Mile Creek Coalition & All who care about clean drinking water
WHEN: Monday, Jan 27th, at 9:00 AM
WHERE: Front Steps of the Montgomery County Council Building, 100 Maryland Ave, Rockville (<http://goo.gl/maps/iqaHQ>)
WHY: To deliver 1,000 letters from Montgomery County residents to their Council members supporting FULL PROTECTION of Ten Mile Creek before the Council's work session

Speakers to include Andrew Fellows, Chesapeake Regional Director for Clean Water Action; Erin Yeagley of MCGEO, UFCW Local 1994; and others

The Save Ten Mile Creek Coalition represents 29 organizations & 1,000's of individuals. Organizations are Audubon Naturalist Society; Canoe Cruisers of America; Chesapeake Climate Action Network; Chesapeake Sustainability Institute; Clean Water Action; Conservation Montgomery; Izaak Walton League (B-CC Chapter); Kehila Chadasha Jewish Community; Latino Environmental Awareness & Direction; Little Falls Watershed Alliance; Maryland Native Plant Society; Montgomery Countryside Alliance; Montgomery County Civic Federation; UFCW #1994 - Montgomery County Government Employees Organization; Montgomery County Green Party; Montgomery County Progressive Alliance; Montgomery County Young Democrats; Potomac Riverkeeper; Progressive Neighbors; Safe Healthy Playing Fields Coalition; Seneca Creek Watershed Partners; Seven Oaks Citizens' Association; Sierra Club Montgomery County Group; Stormwater Partners Network; Sugarloaf Citizens' Association; Timber Oak Citizens' Association; UpCounty Action; Watts Branch Watershed Alliance; WeAreMoCo